Master's Degree Program

JUVENILE LAW AND JUVENILE JUSTICE

The area of professional activity of masters in the direction of "Jurisprudence" and the program "Juvenile Law and Juvenile Justice" includes the implementation of international, constitutional, civil, family, labor, administrative, criminal, penal enforcement, criminal procedure, civil procedure law to protect and ensure the interests of minors. In addition, the area of professional activity of masters in this program includes conducting research in these areas of law, legal education and upbringing.

Prerequisites:
- Bachelor's degree in Law, Social Work, Economics, Public and Municipal Administration (a copy of your diplomas from previous university studies and transcripts of completed courses and grades);
- Successful completion of entrance tests;
- Good command of Russian (certificate or other official document, Russian level B1)

Qualification: Master's degree in Juridical Sciences

Skills/objectives:
- comprehensive interdisciplinary understanding of the institute of juvenile justice in the Russian legal system;
- skills in conducting interdisciplinary scientific and applied research in the field of juvenile law and juvenile justice;
- skills to carry out activities in the juvenile justice system in a highly professional manner

Contacts:
E-mail: pteplyashin@sfu-kras.ru;
E-mail: pavlushat@mail.ru.
SFU Law Institute, Department of Theory and Methodology of Social Work.
Phone: +7 (391) 206-23-61.
Address: 6 Maerchaka, Room 2-15, 660075 Krasnoyarsk.

Program length: 2 years
Starting date: September, 1st
Language of instruction: Russian
Tuition fee per year: 160,316 rubles (~2,160 USD)
Program Leaders: Pavel V. Teplyashin

Doctor of Juridical Science (S.J.D), Professor of the Department of Delinquency and Criminology, Head of the Department of Theory and Methodology of Social Work of the Law Institute of the Siberian Federal University
 Actual problems of juvenile justice.
Fundamentals of social management in the juvenile justice system.
The restorative model in juvenile justice.
Victimological prevention and victim rehabilitation of the juvenile.
Execution of a sentence in the form of imprisonment and post-penitentiary adaptation of those released from educational colonies.